

BOSS Report

January 18, 2010

Contact: Gary Querel
(218)770-1295

Brett Turcotte takes the Pro Super Stock World Champion Title at the 2010 World Championship Snowmobile Derby

January 8-17, 2010
Eagle River, Wisconsin

The 47th annual running of the famed Eagle River World Championship in Eagle River, Wisconsin brought thousands of fans to watch a weekend filled with the best in competitive snowmobile racing. BOSS Racing captured the attention of fans on Friday night during the Sport Super Stock Class when BOSS Sport athlete #262 Tyler Croom soared to the number one podium slot.

Brett Turcotte's first place win in Pro Stock qualifying on Saturday was a picture of things to come. On Sunday, Brett led the Pro Stock event from flag-to-flag becoming the coveted 2010 Pro Super Stock SNO/X World Champion.

"Events like Eagle River are the proving ground and we are proud to have championed this legendary event for our sponsors. We are also extremely excited to compete for gold at Winter X Games 14 as we return with the 2008 Silver Medalist, Brett Turcotte and Travis Gravelle, who will be riding for BOSS in the 1st annual Adaptive Snocross Feature. This internationally acclaimed event will bring an enormous amount of publicity to the team, our riders and our sponsors" – Garry Querel

Upcoming Events:

ACSS Air Force National January 22-23, 2010 Shakopee, MN

Winter X Games 14 January 28-31, 2010, Aspen, Colorado

To stay informed please visit our website @ www.teambossracing.com

Photo credit: Steve Hamilton "WFO" – WFO Foto

