

BOSS Racing Partners With World Famous West Coast Customs

BOSS Racing is pleased to announce a new partnership with world famous vehicle transformer West Coast Customs.

"This partnership is a perfect fit for our team and for all snocross fans," said team owner Garry Querel. Like many of our fans, I have always been a car enthusiasts and as a global leader in not only vehicle restoration and customizing but also wheels, vinyl color wraps and accessories, West Coast Customs brings a brand and image that will be right at home in our sport."

An international team with members from several countries, including two-time National Champion Elias Ishoel of Oppdal, Norway, BOSS Racing is looking forward to the limitless opportunities to work with West Coast Customs on some unique projects away from the track.

Steve Dik, West Coast Customs -

“The World Famous West Coast Customs is excited to announce our partnership as the one of the lead sponsors of the Boss Racing snocross team. As an iconic brand, West Coat Customs continues to evolve our scope of work with entry into the snowmobile market. We are looking forward to an exciting and winning season with Boss Racing and look out for our future projects.”
